

ANSWERS:

- 1) The proud depend upon the world to tell them whether they have value or not.
- 2) Most essential key to a true sense of our eternal worth is the knowledge of our divine parentage.
- 3) The gospel assures you that your value is not dependent on your looks or material possessions.
- 4) Our Heavenly Father's love for us is communicated through the Holy Spirit.
- 5) We must make our physical selves into a being fit to be a god and never, never despise one of the things that set us apart from the hosts of Satan: our bodies, however flawed, however imperfect.
- 6) The world would have us neglect our eternal spirits and be obsessed with our "outward appearance"
- 7) Part of what it means to be a Latter-day Saint is to know within your soul your eternal worth, who you really are, and why you are here on earth"
- 8) Our Heavenly Father's love for us is communicated through the Holy Spirit.
- 9) But we have His love, unconditionally and universally; it is our love of Him that remains to be proven."
- 10) We can experience failure without being a failure. We can be rejected but still value ourselves. We can love others and forgive them even when they treat us badly.

