

Consensus of the Census ANSWERS

Look at this page from the 1911 census

- 1) Who is the head of this household? Edward Arthur Maund
- 2) What is his occupation? Company Director
- 3) What is the name of his wife? Eleanor
- 4) What is the age difference between the man and his wife? 22 years
- 5) How many children are in this family total? 5
- 6) How many are living at home? 3
- 7) One of the children was born not born in England, where were they born?
Africa
- 8) Who else lives in the household? 2 servants
- 9) Who might have crossed out the name of Eleanora Maund and written 'Wife away' at the bottom of the form? Eleanor
- 10) Why was Edward Maund cross with his wife? (see his comments on the bottom of the form) My wife unfortunately being a suffragette put her pen through her name, but it must stand as correct. She being always a resident here and has only attempted by a silly subtrafuge to defeat the objects of the census which as "Head "of the family I object. Signed Ed Mound
- 11) What clues does this census return give us about some men's attitudes to the role of women? _____