
STATION 5

Your Family History

Gene"COW"logy!

When you participate in family history, you come to understand your identity and individual worth. Try to complete a pedigree chart of your family and list the temple ordinances that have been completed for each person.

Also start writing your personal history.